It was not very basic, and alot of things were beyond our knowledge. Plus, the time limit given uo us isnâ€™t sufficient. Takes around a minute or more to only read the question, then we also have to analyse and understand it which is not technically and practically possible in 60 minutes for 40 questions. Please look into this matter sir, as we have already been suffering and donâ€™t want to suffer more. Unfortunately the paper disappeared automatically without submission. Then I logged in again and within the 3 minutes I successfully submit my paper. I am now in a very state of trauma, fortunately I did great but unfortunately due to the technical problem which disappeared my marked paper. While In a jiffy, I marked my all objectives which I have remembered from already solved. Now I am not sure in a hussle bussle whether I Marked correct or unmarked. Number 2 I have apprehension may b when my paper disappeared automatically resulted in auto-submission, if so then I am very happy, atleast 80 percent paper I did correct. It is therefore requested to Ur goodself to look into this matter seriously so that justice will prevail. And everything happened with reason . Todays mishap was becoz of technical problem which results in gloom , despair and tramu.	Addressed and closed

We have not been taught in such a manner, specifically in CrPC where the teacher was struggling to complete the syllabus. Even after studying as we would for offline exams attempting all the questions was difficult and then to be sure about one single answer was not possible. We are not sure even about the questions that we attempted and thatâ€™s not because we hadnâ€™t prepared, itâ€™s because framing of questions was not in par with the teaching methods. Another factor was paucity of time required to solve such papers. People who had expert guidance during the exam will not say the same as many of us because of obvious reasons.	Addressed and closed

315	Khushnama Choudhary	17042122050	khushnamachoudhary@gmail.com	BA LLB 7th sem	Property Law	9682198673	I started submitting/ uploading the answer sheet at 11:55 but unfortunately due to sudden interruption of the internet on account of electricity cut, the same was declined at 12 O'clock with a response that "examination closed". I took the screenshot and immediately telephonically contacted Mrs. Hina who is an examination in charge but she responded in negative, resultantly I also called HOD but she didnt pick up my call. Hence, being aggrieved for no intentional fault on my part I am choosing this mode of communication for redressal of my grievances. I respectfully want to mention that as soon as the technical problem arose, I immediately intimated to the concerned who didnt take care of my grievance. I even contacted the staff members of the law department but all in vain. I, therefore, request that I may be declared as passed in the present paper on the basis of my progress achieved in the rest of the papers taken on online mode as there is no fault on my part in uploading the paper. We have not been taught in such a manner, specifically in CrPC where the teacher was struggling to complete the syllabus. Even after studying as we would for offline exams attempting all the questions was difficult and then to be sure about one single answer was not possible. We are not sure even about the questions that we attempted and thatâ€™s not because we hadnâ€™t prepared, itâ€™s because framing of questions was not in par with the teaching methods. Another factor was paucity of time required to solve such papers.	Addressed and closed
